

ATLANTA WOMAN IS PRANCING IT

Mrs. J. D. Morrow Says Tanie Has Ended All Her Troubles.

"Tanie has ended my troubles and I believe I am a well woman once more," said Mrs. J. D. Morrow, of 124 Bryne street, Atlanta, Ga., in telling of her wonderful restoration to health.

"I had suffered for quite a spell," she continued, "with nervous headaches and had severer pains in my back and in the region of my kidneys. My appetite failed and my sleep was restless. I also suffered from shortness of breath and lost considerable weight and was getting weaker every day, so that I became very dependent upon my fondness.

"So many Atlanta people were taking Tanie with such wonderful results that I decided to try it, too, and it helped me right from the start. My appetite picked up, I sleep better and don't have a pain of any kind about me. I have gained 20 pounds and feel so off and strong that I am now doing all my housework besides looking after my three little ones. I think so much of Tanie that I shall always have a bottle of this medicine in my house from now on."

VOGEL'S MINSTRELS SEEN AT ACADEMY LAST NIGHT

Raleigh, N. C.—John W. Vogel's minstrels at the Academy last night gave a show of worth with a performance not altogether on the old lines of minstrelsy. New ideas in the form of the "dasktown musical and talking review," in which appeared the whole cast in the original old-time darky characterizations, was altogether good and put over with punch. Some parts of the show dragged, but on the whole the furnishers were rather clever.

The biggest applause was drawn by Messrs. Bardare and Atkinson as the "two dancing demons." These light-footed dances, were heavily applauded and their number was perhaps the most appreciated than any of the rest of this clever and creditable gathering of comedians of Mr. Vogel's.

The Yodeling medley by Al Tint was excellent and drew its share of the applause that was not at any time given so very freely, except perhaps the closing "dasktown revue" open the dancing of the old manner. (From News and Observer.)

Mr. V. Self and family left for Northampton county, where they will visit their household in rural Norlina, which will be home. We are sorry to see them go.

MEMPHIS

A new member canvas of the Temperance Campaign will take place Sunday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock and the members are asked to remain at home to meet the canvassers.

ROBEN MEREDITH

Roben Meredith will be in town Sunday morning with Bishop Moore, who will confirm a class, Saturday Mr. Meredith expects to be here and preach at the night service.

CAMPAGNA

Wednesday night Hon. Joseph G. Campagna will make an address at the Baptist Church in the interest of temperance prohibition. Members and others attending should be in their seats by 7 o'clock.

KRYL'S SEXTETTE

SCOTLAND NECK

A speech taken by the students of Scotland Neck School this year in school classes and upon the school grounds is encouraging. There is a spirit evinced by practically all of them which tends to great benefit to the town and also to the students themselves in after years.

JOHN W. VOGEL

There is a tendency among the girls of Scotland Neck to rally round the beloved son once more. This is most commendable and will help the children who are students there in their ways than ever. It takes a courageous spirit to accomplish great things.

JOHN RAY

Some men will assemble at the Ray's office tonight at 6:45 and go over to the banquet hall in the Regal Theatre for the supper to be served at 7 o'clock, at which Mr. Ray, of Enfield, will make the talk. Those who have not yet received tickets for the supper should do so at the Regal at once.

Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinions differ.

Here's a Scotland Neck fact. You can test it.

J. E. Harrison, Church Street, says: "About four years ago I was troubled a great deal with my kidneys. My kidneys didn't act properly and I had some aches across the small of my back. I had headaches, was dizzy and was in poverty and shape. Dr. Dunn's Kidney Pills entirely cured me of all the trouble and I have not been bothered in that way since."
